

Mid-Atlantic CFAR Consortium Plus (MACC+) IS Hub: Activities & Progress

About:

The MACC+ Hub seeks to accelerate HIV prevention, diagnosis, and treatment strategies by providing mentoring and technical support to ongoing and future implementation science (IS) projects and investigators. The Hub also offers mentorship and development opportunities through didactic training, applied learning activities, and intensive IS coaching.

HIV IS Fellows Trained

104

Mentors

21

(Average of 2 fellows per mentor)

1

EHE dashboard under development to highlight EHE published results

EHE Awardees supported:

21

Launch of community-engaged research study with responses from:

>60

academic and community partners to date

